Note: Credit card charges will be processed through Luna Beach Resort's Banco of Atlantica account in Honduras. The US Dollars will be converted into Lempiras at the current, daily exchange rate. Some Credit Card banks may charge an additional service fee for international transactions. Please contact your bank for details.

Effective May 15, 2005, the foreign exchange rate used for international Visa card transactions will be selected by Visa from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets, or the government-mandated rate in effect on the date your transaction is processed. In addition there will be an International Visa Transaction Fee equal to 1% of the transaction amount assessed on all Visa card transactions conducted outside the United States. This can be true of other credit card companies.

NOTE: DO NOT send credit card information via our email form, or via any email that you send to us. This information is not secure and we cannot be responsible for the information if sent in this manner.
